

Client: El Tucán

Date: December 16, 2019

Outlet: TimeOut Miami

UVM: 178,302

Ring in 2020 at Miami's best New Year's Eve events, parties and dinners

These Miami New Year's Eve events are going to help you welcome the new decade with a bang—and maybe a hangover too

By Virginia Gil and Falyn Freyman | Posted: Monday December 16 2019

Photograph: Sebastian Bednarski

Ring in 2020 at Miami's best New Year's Eve events, parties and dinners

The search for the best New Year's Eve events in Miami can be daunting. People put a lot of pressure on poor ol' December 31. Where to go? Who to kiss? Will the feeling ever return to your toes after running around for seven hours in the world's most uncomfortable shoes? Things can go very right or very wrong. Or maybe you're just making things more complicated than they have to be. Either way, we want to help. Depending on the level of lit or lavishness you're trying to achieve, there's a party on this list for everyone. You'll recognize many of the venues below as our picks for the best restaurants in Miami and the best clubs in Miami. There are some off-the-beaten-path options too. Once you've picked the right one, take a deep breath and focus on the easy part: having fun. And don't worry—it's definitely still too soon to start thinking about those 2020 resolutions.

Photograph: Sebastian Bednarski

Restaurants, Cuban

Passionata at El Tucán

Brickell

This lavish dinner and a show celebrates 2020 with a wild, Brazilian Carnival-inspired evening. Riffing on the vibrancy and high energy of Brazilian culture, El Tucán leans into its sexy, lush tropical nightclub vibes with champagne, live performances and danceable Afro-Latin beats by DJ C. Tickets ($195 per person) include a decadent three-course meal plus a live performance by Lenier.

Ring in 2020 at Miami's best New Year's Eve events, parties and dinners